ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Oysters at the Delmonico. Frye and Barley at Palmer's. Buy your groceries at L. Gaither's. Deane's Cabinet Photographs are elegant.

Meats at all hours at the Delmonico. The prices of Ragland's goods defy competition from any quarter.

Unlaundered shirts—That is a disgrace. You know the price for $1.00 all the summer. Go to B. Haber's and try one.

Everybody who is fond of a real good cigar, should try the brand that is storming the country. "He-no" for sale by Castles & Morrison.

Read and forget not Tucker's column ad—"Lion Drug Store"—his "simple remedies" the people do take, and attest to their merit.

Young ladies, do not forget that you have an opportunity of securing a commercial education at H.B. Busch's college.

Deane's photos are the finest made. Fresh, crisp celery at the St. Charles today. Don't miss it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Orand, of Whiteville, are guests at the New McCall hotel.

Mr. S. H. Barrett, the circus man, paid his respects to the EXAMINER office yesterday.

Barrett's circus car was generally admired by all the small boys at the M. P. depot yesterday.

Several Wacoites will leave about the first of October to attend the St. Louis exposition.

The prairie have put on a beautiful autumnal robe of gold and red, and will all be fat this winter.

As soon as it is dry enough farmers will begin to plant wheat. The acreage increases every year.

Argument in one White trial will be heard before U.S. Commissioner Finks at 10 o'clock today.

Mr. T. Anderson has removed to South Fourth street, and taken rooms at Dr. Callender's.

You will find the Success flour at Wm. A. Miller's, where everything is sold at rock bottom prices.

A concrete pavement is being put down in front of Dr. Hammett's, and Mr. D. S. Wood's store, on Austin avenue.

To-day is Yom Kippor, a day of atonement, and all of our Jewish citizens will close their places of business.

Mr. Strother Means, an ex-Waco boy, is here with Barrett's advertising car, and goes along in the capacity of a bill poster.

Cotton receipts yesterday, 101 bales; total to date, 2,415 bales. The market took a rise of one-eighth of a cent yesterday.

Re-opening of Alex. Bruhl's oyster and fish depot, 508 Austin avenue, today. Give him a call and get fish ready for cooking, as formerly.

Orand Bros. sent seven double teams to the country yesterday with clients and who are posting bills at all the villages adjacent to the city.

Mr. B. Haber's store will remain closed until 7 o'clock this evening, when he will open for the benefit of his Saturday evening customers.

Counsel for defense in the White case will make a strong fight to prevent the removal of the case from Waco to St. Louis. They want it tried here.

The streets are drying off, but the roads in the country are in a fearful fix. Four miles attached to a wagon drew one bale of cotton into the city yesterday.

On account of the absence of Rev. S. A. King, who is attending the meeting of the Central Texas Presbytery, at Taylor, there will be no preaching at the Central Street Presbyterian church to-morrow.

The popularity of the Academy of Art extends far and wide and receives a large patronage from people of all classes of the city.

Officer Knott has a new horse. He (the horse) is a well built animal, but we do not believe that Knott could catch a "coon" (the coon) was badly frightened and Knott was after him.

Eddie Sharabel $2 for drunkenness; Ida Walker $3 for vagrancy; Edward Walker $1 for vagrancy; and one other, and A. M. Ellis $5 for an assault, were the cases tried before Recorder Brinkerhoff yesterday.

The EXAMINER made a mistake yesterday in mentioning the name of the lady who has been appointed principal of the Third ward school. The name should have read Miss Louise Garrett. It was a mistake of the reporter in hearing the name of the lady in the council.

The EXAMINER reporter paid a visit to Mr. S. H. Barrett's advertising car yesterday afternoon, and was met by Mr. Barrett himself, who was accompanied by his pleasant, social gentleman. The car is a beautiful piece, and is a model of convenience for everything. Mr. Barrett says he has met with a great deal of business in Texas, but he hopes to come to Waco on a fair day, when he will give us a fine show.

Personal. One showing new straw goods for the fall season. Every desirable style, novelties in neckwear and fancy goods. Our fall opening, little later, will surpass all previous displays. We invite you to visit us. Fourth street, opposite side of the street from the Pacific hotel.
